

ISAAC, Abraham's Son

Abraham and Sarah had just one son, Isaac, just as God had promised.

But God still had another test of faith for Abraham.

You can LEARN about it by READING Genesis 22:1-14.

READ the Picture Bible pages 51-66.

Abraham is called "Our Father in Faith" because he had so much trust in God that he was obedient even when it was very hard—and even when he couldn't see what God's plan was!

THINK about the story, then ANSWER the following questions. We've put in pictures as hints!

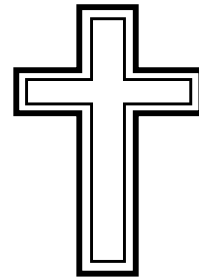

Abraham trusted God and obeyed Him. But—who else was obedient and trusting in this story?

(Hint: he carried the wood up the mountain!) _____

Who else in the story has only one son?

(Hint: Remember John 3:16) _____

What did God's only Son carry up a hill?

Whom does God send to speak to Abraham?

Abraham also taught his son to be obedient to God!

Who else in our "Jesse Tree" of Salvation History taught his family to be obedient?

Isaac

1. Isaac
2. God
3. The wood of the Cross
4. An angel
5. Noah