

Saint Juan Diego and Our Lady of Guadalupe

TUESDAY

December 10

In 1531, Saint Juan Diego, a Mexican Indian, had his first meeting with a beautiful lady who appeared to him on Tepayac Hill. He would meet her several more times over the next 4 days —until December 12, which is the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe!

STORYTIME

To learn his story and hers, this week you can LISTEN to our exciting Glory Stories Volume 1: "Fresh Flowers in Winter" for FREE in today's Advent Adventure.

We'll play an episode each day so you can hear the whole exciting story!

You can also PRINT OUT Saint Juan Diego coloring pages!

HELP Saint Juan Diego! The correct trail through the maze will answer this question:

What did the Bishop ask Juan Diego to get before he would believe that the Mother of God really wanted a chapel built on Tepayac Hill?

START at the ★ at the TOP and exit at the BOTTOM to find which is the CORRECT answer.

START HERE ★

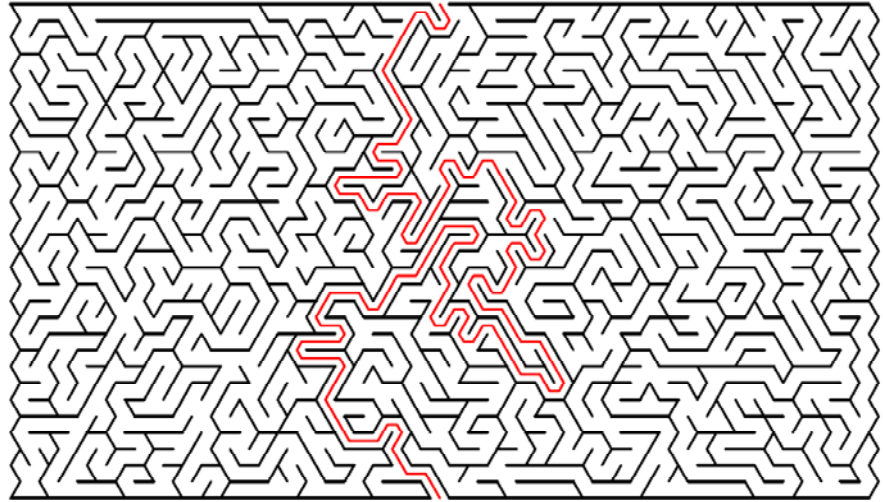

A signed note from Jesus

A sign to prove who she was

Money to pay the cost to build it

St. Juan Diego

To prove who she was